

COMING SOON TO DES MOINES UNIVERSITY

AMERICAN HEART

Seven years in the making, this Emmy-winning documentary takes viewers on an intimate journey into the lives of three refugees who now call America home. All of them confront life-threatening health emergencies throughout the course of the film, and their trajectories prove surprising even to their doctors.

FILM SCREENING & PANEL DISCUSSION

Monday, August 29 • 5:15 to 7:45 PM

DMU Student Education Center Auditorium

FREE! Refreshments will be served.

THE PANEL:

- Chris Newberry, director of American Heart
- Amaran Moodley, M.D., provider at Blank Children's Infectious Diseases Clinic
- Lian Puii, health advocate at Ethnic Minorities of Burma Advocacy and Resource Center (EMBARC)
- Uma Palakurthy, M.D., provider at Primary Healthcare Inc.

PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE DES MOINES REFUGEE HEALTH ALLIANCE